Been to the underground conference room-locked up, office upstairs is locked.

Where is the meeting?

Confused because I have been to a number of them & always in that conference room.

Please advise.

Cheers

Hi Sara,

Thanks for your email. The Pershing Square website says the meeting is today, March 14. It says the next meeting is April 11 (also a Thursday). Has the day of the meeting been changed, or is the website wrong?

See attached screen grab from
<http://laparks.org/pershingsquare/#pab>

best regards,
Kim

My understanding is that it's on Wednesday, however I was unable to attend yesterday and I haven't been to the meeting in the past month so maybe it changed. I would email either Russell Brown or Patti Berman about this. do you have their contact info?

Hi all,

I'm a member of the PAB. The meeting was yesterday morning. The new website went online last week, so it looks like there is a typo.

The PAB meetings have always been on the second Wednesday of the month. I'm copying Louise so she knows there needs to be a correction on the website.

We apologize.

Calvin:

Thank you.

Louise:

<http://laparks.org/pershingsquare/#pab>

Dates are for the second Thursday of the month.

It was odd, I could not find this site a week or so back, and then my wife did Tuesday night, and we decided I would go today, when the web site send the meeting was, because it is a municipal website, and why would it be incorrect.

Looking forward to the meeting in April!

Cheers
